Rockingham County Access Transportation Services (RCATS) is proud to offer the new VA Kernersville Caravan, a free express van service to the Kernersville VA Clinic and area medical providers for Veterans and the public. Specially marked RCATS vans depart every Monday* from your home and other pickup locations in the county. Riders should make reservations to ensure arrival before scheduled appointment times and will return upon completion of clinic visits. Reservations are first-come, first served.

RCATS vans are accessible for persons with disabilities with room for two wheelchairs. Riders can also bring an attendant or caregiver as needed at no cost.
